

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Every year, over 5,000 young children in America lose their lives from life threatening illnesses before ever having the opportunity to realize their ambitions; and,

WHEREAS, The Make-A-Wish Foundation, with 74 chapters throughout the United States, is comprised of dedicated volunteers bent on helping these youngsters know the thrill of achieving their dreams; and,

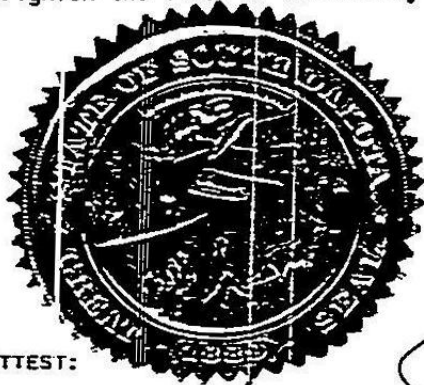

WHEREAS, In the spirit of Babe Ruth, who hit three home runs in one baseball game for a little boy dying in the hospital, these volunteers raise funds and open doors for their young friends in an effort to help them achieve that one goal, whether it be to meet a famous baseball or football player, meet a favorite television or movie star, be mayor for a day, or go to Disneyland; and,

WHEREAS, In recognition of the dedication of the volunteers who donate their time, talent and energy to the cause of giving a sick youngster joy and happiness, it is fitting and proper for the State of South Dakota to join in the national observance of Make-A-Wish week:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 25 through December 2, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join the many friends of the South Dakota Make-A-Wish Foundation in commending the volunteers for their efforts to brighten the lives of terminally ill children and their families.

MAKE-A-WISH WEEK

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazeltime
JOYCE HAZELTIME, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

George S. Mickelson
GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR